

Clearance certificate

The safety and health of our employees must be protected at all times. We therefore ask for your understanding that we can only carry out checks and repairs if the following declaration has been completed and signed.

Components that have been contaminated with microbiological, bacteriological, virological, chemical or radioactive substances will only be accepted if proof of proper cleaning is provided.

Information about the device

Article name: _____
 Item number: _____
 Serial number: _____
 Date of purchase (order or delivery note number, if applicable): _____
 Reason for submission: _____

What substances did the device come into contact with?

Trade name / chemical name: _____
 Harmful (yes / no): _____
 Hazard class: _____

The undersigned declares binding

- that the devices sent in have been carefully cleaned and decontaminated before dispatch (please enclose proof of cleaning / decontamination if necessary)
- that the devices sent in pose no risk of microbiological, bacteriological, virological, chemical or radioactive contamination
- that he / she is authorized to make such statements for the company represented

If we do not have any documentation on the type of contamination and the cleaning measures carried out, we reserve the right to return the devices for a fee or to carry out cleaning that we consider appropriate. Thank you for your understanding.

Company / Organization Address	Name of the authorized person
	Phone
	E-Mail
The harmlessness is bindingly confirmed
Date	Signature of the authorized person	Company stamp